TOP 100 MINORITIES HERITAGE SITES OF PAKISTAN

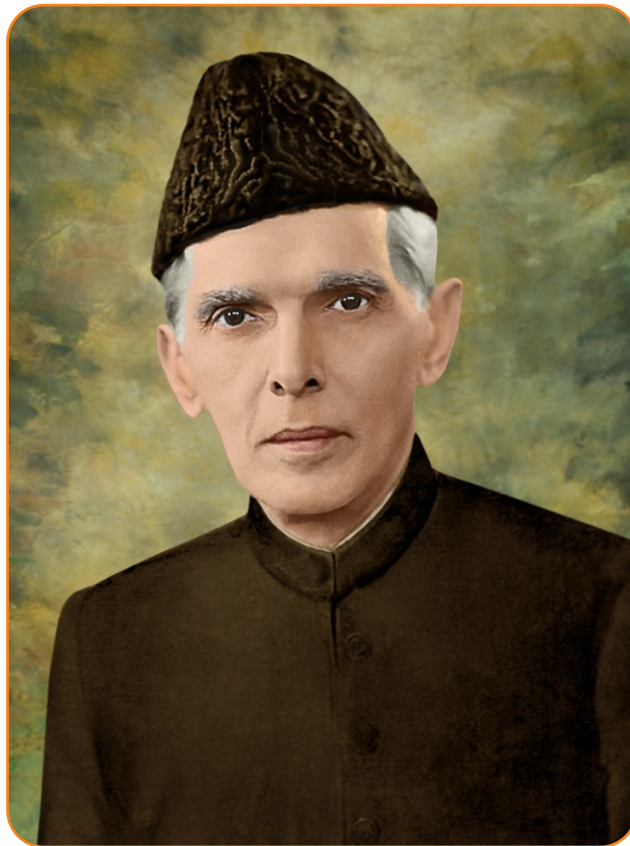

ALL PAKISTAN MINORITIES
HERITAGE PHOTO CONTEST

18TH APRIL, 2023 (WORLD HERITAGE DAY)

Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani

Dedicated to Quaid e Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah, father of nation, who during his speech to constituent Assembly, on 11th August 1947, enhanced confidence of minorities in Pakistan, with utterances as under:

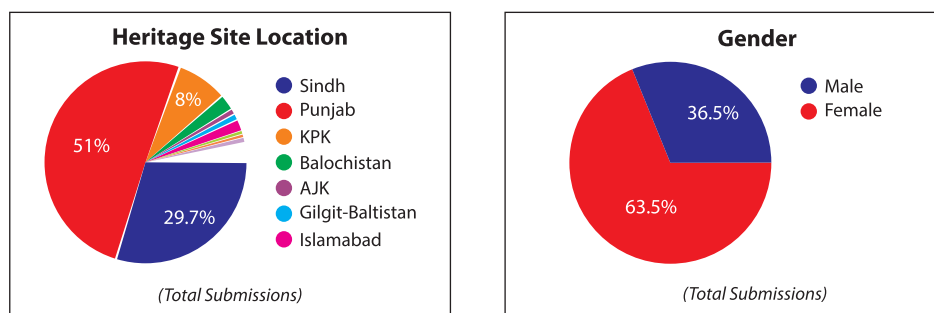

*"You are free to go to your temples; you are free to go to your mosques or to any other place of worship in this state of Pakistan.
You may belong to any religion or caste or creed,
that has nothing to do with the business of State."*

Preface

The land of present-day Pakistan, having thousands of years of ancient history, is full of hidden architectural wonders and unique sites that make up part of our rich heritage, including related with different faiths. Undoubtedly, these countless unknown historical holy sites are silent witness of our glorious past.

Pakistan Hindu Council, in order to identify minority (non-Muslim) related holy places of worship across the country, organized All Pakistan Minorities Heritage Photo Contest to highlight and showcase the historical and sacred buildings of non-Muslim minority religions including Hindu, Sikh, Buddhist, Jain, Parsi, Jewish and Christian communities, which have a glorious past, with their proofs available on ground, despite passage of hundreds of years afterwards.

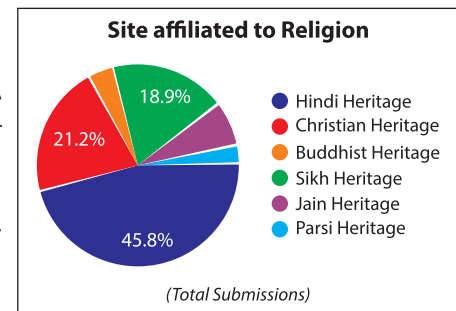

It was indeed, not an easy task to organize such a big contest, without the support of Higher Education Commission (HEC), whose Chairman Dr. Mukhtar Ahmed from day one, took keen interest in encouraging universities, to motivate their students /staff to participate actively. This resulted in, 1256 submissions, from 581 contestants, from different universities and higher education institutions (HEIs), across the country. Though entire work carried out by our young students is valuable but still 100 best ones have been selected by the jury, comprising of highly-respectable senior citizens, Engineer Prem Telraja and Artist Misbahuddin Qazi, in addition to myself. All contestants will be awarded with the certificates of appreciation, to acknowledge their interest and contribution, however 100 best ones, along with appreciation certificates, would be given prizes as well as cash prizes and Book Album.

On various occasions, I have been expressing, on various occasions that Pakistan Movement, under the dynamic leadership of Quaid-e-Azam, was a purely peaceful struggle, which resulted in achieving a sovereign country. To transform the newly-independent state into a model welfare country, he provided a clear roadmap during his address to the Constituent Assembly on August 11, 1947, which covered rights of minorities too. Appointment of Hindu leader Jogendra Nath Mandal in his cabinet and asking Pakistani Hindu families to make Pakistan their homeland, are some examples to highlight the Quaid's vision of peaceful, progressive and prosperous Pakistan.

I decided to join parliamentary politics in 2002, where I ensure active participation to raise voice on public issues and contribute to the legislation process, to serve mankind. I laid the foundation of the Pakistan Hindu Council in 2005, so that the Pakistani Hindu community, the largest minority group in the country, could get a platform where through, their issues, concerns and reservations could be heard and solved in peaceful ways.

I have visited several foreign countries and observe that the main objective of any welfare state is to provide social and economic equality to all citizens and to ensure fair standards of living, without any discrimination. Here we were far behind this milestone but judgment of hon. Supreme Court on June 19, 2014, is amongst few such rare steps by our state institution in our chequered history of 75 years, that actually attempted to address and undo the wrongs, previously done to minority communities, living in Pakistan. I consider this historical judgment, my biggest achievement, which was in response to my arguments, about the desecration of holy worship places, pertaining to religious minorities and threats as well to their innocent lives.

Similarly, I believe that the formation of a commission, comprising Chief Secretary, Advocate General and myself, in 2018 under the CMA 75077 by the Supreme Court of Pakistan, was yet another achievement, due to which around 400 minority religious and individual sites were evacuated from illegal possessions. Unfortunately, 200 sites are still encroached, some of which have been identified through this photo contest.

My recent achievement is the compilation of this book, which I have dedicated to Quaid-e-Azam, the founding father of Pakistan, who assured at the time of independence that:

"You are free; you are free to go to your temples. You are free to go to your mosques or to any other places of worship in this State of Pakistan. You may belong to any religion, caste or creed – that has nothing to do with the business of the state."

I am also thankful to Chief Minister Sindh, Syed Murad Ali Shah and Provincial Minister for Culture, Tourism & Antiquities Syed Sardar Ali Shah, for their support and cooperation, to carry out this noble cause. The way they contributed and have provided practical support, has won the hearts of patriotic minorities, residing in Sindh and other parts of the country.

I believe that this book is a gift to Pakistan and today, we are in the process of making history, by compiling this book that contains valuable information about minority heritage sites. This book will be available in hard and soft copies in libraries of all Pakistani public/private universities. Additionally, his book will also be a great source for the promotion of faith tourism, both at domestic and international levels, through which we can ameliorate our country's image, globally.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the Press Network of Pakistan (PNP), our implementing partner for providing all required technical support and processing this initiative in a professional way. Pakistan Hindu Council hopes that in future, we will continue such cordial cooperation, for successful completion of other projects as well.

Pakistan Zindabad!

Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani
Member National Assembly
Patron-in-Chief, Pakistan Hindu Council

"I would like to take this opportunity to extend my felicitations to Pakistan Hindu Council and Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani particularly, for taking up such an initiative. The heritage of minorities is indeed our indigenous identity, which should be preserved at all costs. We at Sindh Government are conscious enough of our responsibility in this context and wholeheartedly offer our full support, to preserve our National Heritage."

Syed Murad Ali Shah
Honorable Chief Minister Sindh

"On behalf of Higher Education Commission, I felicitate Dr. Ramesh Kumar (founder and the Patron-in-Chief of Pakistan Hindu Council) and his team for organizing "All PAKISTAN MINORITIES HERITAGE PHOTO CONTEST" initiative, which has presented a creative opportunity to the people across the country to showcase the heritage sites/holy places of our brethren minority communities.

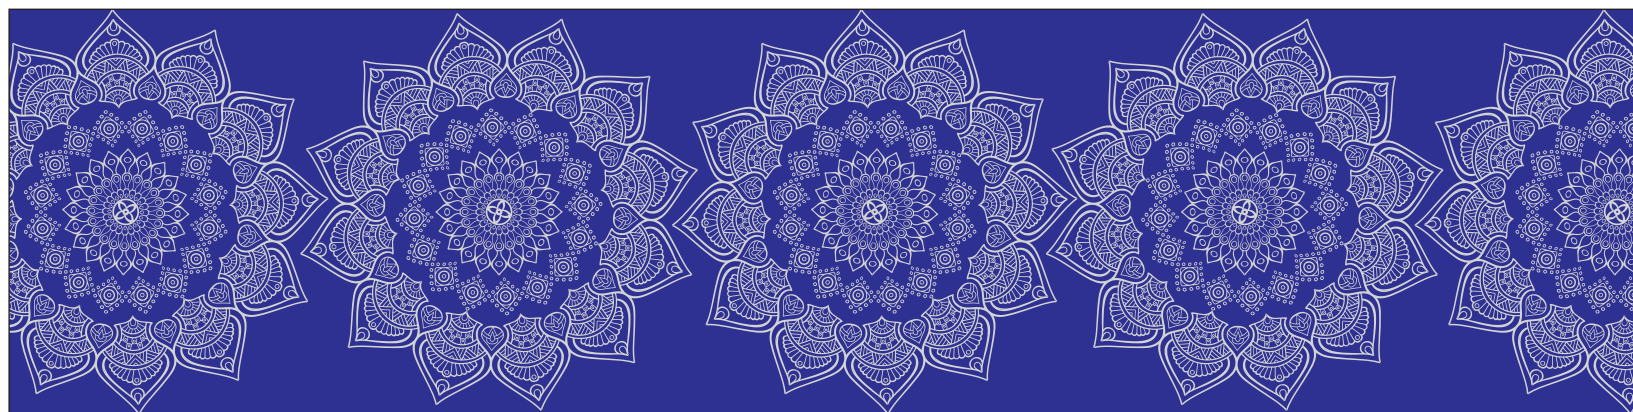

The Higher Education Commission is pleased to be a collaborative partner of the project which has been instrumental in not only highlighting the need to protect our shared heritage for future generations but also in raising awareness about the importance of promoting interfaith harmony and celebrating the cultural diversity of our country. I am confident that the activities under the project would assist in bringing the heritage sites to limelight and in advocating the meticulous need to preserve such invaluable assets, thus promoting the image of Pakistan as a modern, inclusive and just society."

Chairman Higher Education Commission of Pakistan

I cordially congratulate Pakistan Hindu Council & Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani for the completion of this book, which is filled with rich history & heritage. I as a Minister of Culture, Tourism, and Antiquities for Sindh, offer my full support for preservation of the Minorities' Heritage of Sindh and Pakistan"

Syed Sardar Ali Shah

Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani
Member National Assembly
Patron-in-Chief, Pakistan Hindu Council

Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani, Patron-in-chief of Pakistan Hindu Council, is a high-profile leader of the Pakistani Non-Muslim minorities' community and is a prominent member of the Parliament of Pakistan. In order to highlight the rights of the minorities and on other national issues, Dr. Vankwani regularly appears on national and foreign media. His weekly articles are also being published in English, Urdu and Sindhi languages in leading newspapers.

Dr. Vankwani is a qualified surgeon and is clearly one of the most capable politicians of Pakistan. He is one of the highly motivated philanthropists and social workers belonging to Non-Muslim community. He also received National Human Rights Award by the President of Pakistan as a recognition of his struggle services to protect the human rights.

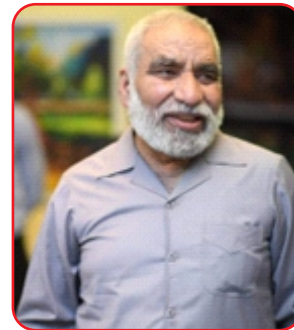

Mr. Prem Chand Talreja

Mr. Prem Chand Talreja is basically a Civil Engineer, who served in Works and Services Department, for about 35 years and retired as Senior Chief Engineer in February 2020. During this period, he worked over different prestigious projects but simultaneously remained connected with social work, directly and through platform of Pakistan Hindu Council.

He possesses ample knowledge of Hinduism and of other religions but he himself is attracted towards "Advaita" philosophy, which is known as 'Wahidat ul vijood' too, which talks about presence of God in every particle of universe.

He is now Technical Advisor of Pakistan Hindu Council but his valuable inputs are sought on all issues pertaining to Minorities.

Mr. Misbah Uddin Qazi

Mr. Misbah Uddin Qazi is a renowned painter (Visual Artist) with 32 Solo Shows and more than 100 Group Shows in major cities of Pakistan, and abroad to his credit. He has also participated in several International Exhibitions.

After getting the degree of his MFA. (Master of Fine Arts) in 1971 from Punjab University, Lahore he started his professional career with Pakistan National Council (PNCA) in 1973 and retired from the post of Director Visual Arts in 2006. He also secured Italian government scholarship in 1978 to study Fine Arts from the Academia di Belle Arti di Perugia (Italy).

During his 32 years of work with the PNCA and even after retirement, he performed a selfless role for the promotion of the soft image of Pakistan. Most recently, he served as a judge /chief guest for the sculpture competition during the Gandhara Festival organized by Rawalpindi Arts Council.

Current Name: Shri Paramhans Dayal Ji Maharaj Mandir

Location: KPK

Google Location: 74V2+RQX, Old Bazaar, near Post Office, Old Bazaar Teri, Karak, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa

Religion Affiliation: Hindu Heritage

Original Status: Hindu Temple

Current Use: Original Religious Site

Description: This Mandir was established in 1904, when Shri Paramhans Dayaali ji Mahaaraaj came here, from Bihar State of then undivided India, in search of his true disciple, Shri Beli Ram ji, an 18 years' young man then. Shri Mahaaraaj ji recognized his disciple at the first glance, telling him that he had come all along, to meet him. Shri Mahaaraaj ji bestowed him Shadhu garb and subsequently declared him his successor in 1919, few weeks before shedding his mortal frame, to leave for his heavenly abode. As per sacred will of Shri Mahaaraaj ji, he was given Samaadhi in yogic Lotus posture in Mandir, inaugurated by him 1904.

From 1904 to 1919, he frequently visited different areas of undivided India but kept his headquarter here in Teri. As Shri Mahaaraaj ji was not only proficient in Hindu Scriptures but was scholar of Holy Quran too, so during his sermons, along with his Hindu disciples from entire India, he used to have equal number of Muslims too.

The Mandir containing Samaadhi / Shrine of Shri Mahaaraaj Ji was being visited by Hindus and Muslims alike, till 1947. But partition in 1947, led to evacuation of this entire area by Hindus. Still the Samaadhi of Shri Mahaaraaj was regularly being attended by Muslim Community of area but after start of wave of fundamentalism in late 1970s, this attendance and look after by local Muslim community receded drastically. Subsequently during 1997, when some Hindus from Sindh came to repair and rehabilitate some damages, the Shrine was attacked / Desecrated by some miscreants and banned Pilgrimage for Hindus too.

After long struggle, Pakistan Hindu Council got it restored in 1914, with the help of Hon. Supreme Court of Pakistan. Again in December 2020, when some expansion of Mandir was in progress, the Mandir / Mausoleum was attacked / Desecrated & Burnt. Honourable Supreme Court came to rescue again and got the Mandir / Samaadhi restored. Finally, on 8th August 2021, Honourable Chief Justice Pakistan visited the Shri Paramhans Ji Mahaaraaj Mandir Teri and participated in Deewali Celebrations there.

Description: The Shrine at Odero Lal is still a typical example of true old religious spirit of Sindh, when members of both Communities used to be present at one place, with spiritual aspirations. This scene no doubt is still visible at several places in Sindh but has lost its luster and has faded away remarkably. But here at Dargah Odero Lal, it continued undimmed, with full enthusiasm.

Sindhi Muslims believe that the shrine is of saint Sheikh Tahir, whereas Hindus revere the saint as Odero Lal - which is endorsed by name of Dargah, town and railway station - but offer a different explanation, regarding his origins and mission. Hindus also name the saint as Jhulelal. Both the communities however refer to the saint by one common i-e religiously-neutral name Zindah Pir, or "The Living Saint."

Description: Dharamshaalaa is basically a guest house, offered to visitors by NGOs, on very nominal charges, which are necessitated to cover regular operation & maintenance expenditures. Karachi with an active sea port, was even then, a busy business center, with health, education facilities. So the city received heavy number of guests from Interior Sindh and other parts of undivided India.

This Dharamshaalaa along with few other Dharamshaalaas / Mandirs in Karachi, used to offer comfortable and economical accommodation to these visitors. This outstanding facility was mercilessly destroyed by Builder mafia in collusion with Local administration. Pakistan Hindu Council being sensitive and cautious regarding invaluable Heritage has taken the matter to court of Law, with intention of its Rehabilitation to its original glory and Functionality.

Description: According to tradition, St. Thomas passed through Taxila, on his way to India and preached at the court of King Gondophares. An early third-century Syriac work known as the Acts of Thomas, discovered in 1822 in Syria, says the king gave some money to the saint and ordered him to build a royal palace but the saint gave away all the money in alms. Because of disobedience, the king ordered to burn the saint alive. Meanwhile brother of king "Gad" died and miraculously came back to life. He informed the King that the ordered palace for king has been built in heaven, he has seen there.

The king apologized and converted to Christianity. Yet another story informs that St. Thomas himself constructed the throne and preached here for 40 years.

This church is in Sirkap, which is protected under the Antiquities Act 1975, passed by the Pakistani parliament, and listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
