Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani

MNA & Patron-in-Chief
Pakistan Hindu Council

MESSAGE

The teachings of every religion urge followers to serve humanity and stand against brutality, cruelty and evil. Hinduism, also known as Sanatana Dharma, is one of the world's ancient religions, which urges the followers to help mankind, and support the vulnerable, regardless of religious or geographical affiliations.

Helping the oppressed is key virtue of Hinduism. It is said that during the Karbala tragedy, a Hindu named Rahib Dutt and his twelve sons also sacrificed their precious lives in support of Hazrat Imam Hussain (RA). Even today there is a Hindu community called Hussaini Brahmin who used to mourn along with Muslims every year in the month of Muharram.

The entire history of the Subcontinent shows us that local society is traditionally based on interfaith harmony, tolerance, pluralism and diversity. The basic teachings of Hinduism focuses on becoming good human beings to serve mankind. Keeping this in view, all Hindu rulers are bound to ensure religious harmony, societal tolerance and pluralism under their rule.

At the time of the establishment of Pakistan, the non-Muslim population was about one fourth, and today, according to the data provided by NADRA, non-Muslim community is only four percent of the total population, in which Hindu community is largest one, followed Christians.

Quaid-e-Azam reiterated his commitment to protect the rights of patriotic non-Muslim minorities through his practical steps. One example being the appointment of Hindu politician Jogendranath Mandal as the Law Minister. Quaid-e-Azam, in this way, wanted to deliver a clear message to the world that Pakistan has definitely come into existence in the name of religion, but there is no space for any kind of discrimination on religious grounds.

The lesson of history is that history does not forgive anyone, but our tragedy is that we used to indulge ourselves in distorting history. We are still unable to understand what was the real purpose of creating Pakistan. Sir Ganga Ram, Sardar Bhagat Singh, Jogendranath Mandal and Jagannath Azad are among the countless great personalities of our glorious past, but we have forgotten them only because of our prejudice.

We must think about the reasons why we are going backwards every year, while the countries that achieve independence after us transform themselves into strong economies. We need to ensure that our society must be free from bias and prejudice.

Pakistan Zindabad!

Gopal Khamuani

President
Pakistan Hindu Council

MESSAGE

As the President of the Pakistan Hindu Council, my aim has always been to serve humanity irrespective of caste and culture. I have always followed the teachings of my Guru "Shri Guru Nanak Dev Ji" that is "To serve humanity is to serve God." Pakistan Hindu Council established in 2005 has been working for the welfare of the deprived communities of Pakistan and is the representative body of the Hindu community both at national and at international levels. I am proud to say that Pakistan Hindu Council today is recognized all around the world.

I have served a long period of about 15 years in this organization in different positions and I have seen it grow over these years with the leadership of Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani. The Combined Marriages Program initiated in 2008 under the Presidency of Mr Raja Asser Mal Manglani has been one of the major events that the Pakistan Hindu Council organizes every year. This event not only provides the deprived minority communities with a platform but also a sense of social inclusiveness in society. The couples and the families are provided with all the facilities required for a marriage ceremony. Couples are helped financially and given household appliances and gifts to start their life as newlyweds.

This year Pakistan has gone through a very tough period of torrential rains which have affected millions of people. It has had the highest recorded rainfall in more than three decades. It has affected millions of people and many have lost their lives and livelihood to these floods. During these tough times, Pakistan Hindu Council took immediate action and actively participated in the flood relief activities. Mobile medical camps, flood relief drives, and tent cities were set up to help the community.

Many different programs are also done through Pakistan Hindu Council during my term as President. Rozgar Schemes, Ambulance Services, Cremation Bus Services, Financial Assistance, Wheelchair distribution and schools are well maintained by Pakistan Hindu Council. Through Rozgar Schemes we have provided rikshaws to the youth to earn their living. Also through the PHC Sewing Machine Distribution Program, I am proud to say that today many widows have started to earn their own living without the need of depending on others.

Education is also one of the main priorities of the Pakistan Hindu Council. We have established up till now around 17 schools in the remote areas of Tharparkar for deprived and underprivileged children. I want to appeal to all the parents through this message that every child should be given academic and religious education as every child has the right to education.

As Pakistan Hindu Council is the one and only recognized organization in Pakistan working for the welfare of the Hindu community therefore I would like to request all those having disputes outside and within the courts with Pakistan Hindu Council to finish them off and join together with us to work for the welfare of the community as one.

Through my message, I would also like to invite the youth of the community to come together and help needy people and serve the community. I always pray that all deserving people get the required help, services and equal chances of celebrations in their lives.

Lastly, I would like to congratulate all the newlywed couples on the new beginning of their journey.

Mr. Parshotam Ramani

General Secretary
Pakistan Hindu Council

MESSAGE

Working for the welfare of society has always been the aim of my life. Through the platform of the Pakistan Hindu Council as the General Secretary, my aim is to serve the community and educate the people about Hinduism as well as the concept of humanity. I want to be able to work on this and request God to give me enough strength and abilities to follow this path in life. I am proud to say that under the leadership of Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani, Pakistan Hindu Council's mission to serve deprived individuals, educate poor children and help needy families financially as well as medically has been achieved to a great extent and we aim to reach more and more individuals through this platform.

One of the major goals of the Pakistan Hindu Council is to create interfaith harmony in Pakistan. Therefore we arrange different social activities such as Iftar and Sehri Programs, Christmas Programs as well as Interfaith Harmony Walks to promote the concept of Interfaith Harmony among all the youth of Pakistan. We need to create a deeper understanding of the different religions to promote peace and prosperity within society. We have also created employment opportunities for hundreds of youth through our Rozgar Scheme. Our sewing machine distribution program has also helped many widows with the opportunity of making a livelihood for themselves and their families.

Other services that Pakistan Hindu Council provides is the 2 cremation buses that run across Hyderabad and Karachi along with 12 ambulances. We also run 17 schools in the remote areas of Tharparkar. Education has also been one of my major focus. We aim to educate these children from the deprived areas. Every child should have the right to education. This year we started a female scholarship program where girls from the minority community from all over Pakistan were provided scholarships. The aim of this scholarship program is to educate the women of our society.

Pakistan has been through a tough period of floods in 2022 and I feel proud to say that Pakistan Hindu Council has actively supported the flood affected individuals. We have set up mobile medical camps, tent cities, and flood relief drives to support our Pakistani community.

The Combined Marriages Program which is held every year, where 100 couples tie the knot is one of the biggest events organized by the Pakistan Hindu Council. This program aims to help poor individuals to get married with dignity and all expenses are borne by Pakistan Hindu Council. I would like to request all the influential people and organizations to join hands with us in this noble cause and spread happiness among deprived families.

In the end, I would like to congratulate all the couples in the Mass Marriage Program 2023 on their new beginning.
