"कर्मण्येवाधिकारस्ते मा फलेषु कदाचन।

मा कर्मफलहेतुर्भूर्मा ते संगोऽस्त्वकर्मणि॥"

"Your right is to perform your duty only; but never to its fruits. Let not the fruits of action
Be your motive, nor let your attachment be to inaction."

تمہارا کیول کرم کرنے کا ادھکار ہے . کرم پھلوں سے تمہارا کوئی سمبندھ نہیں . جو
کرم تم کرو، اُس کے پھل کی اچھا مت کرو . اسی پر کار، کرم کرنا بھی مت چھوڑو

توکی فقط کرم کرڻ جو اڏکار آهي، پر کرم ڦلن ۾ تنهنجو ڪوبه اڏکار ڪونه آهي. تون پاڻ کي ڪڏهن به پنهنجي ڪرم جي
ڦلن جو ڪارڻ نه سمجهه ۽ تون ڪرم نه ڪرڻ ۾ به ڪڏهن آسڪت نه ٿي.

Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani

Patron-in-Chief
Pakistan Hindu Council

MESSAGE

It is indeed a matter of honor for Pakistan Hindu Council that people have full trust on our initiatives and we are thankful to our friends who always come up with new ideas, joint ventures and funds in the personal or professional capacity.

There are numerous historic religious sites across Pakistan, which have duly preserved the region's ancient history. It is yet another interesting fact that the most significant ancient religious sites of Dharmik religions including Hinduism, Buddhism and Jainism are located in present-day Pakistan. The 2,000-year ancient Gandhara civilization, belonging to the northern part of present-day Pakistan, reflects Buddhism's glorious past in our region when Hinduism, Buddhism and Jainism were flourishing. The world's most ancient university was established in Taxila where great philosopher Chanakya used to teach students.

It is therefore the desire of every Buddhist in the world to visit sacred sites located in Taxila, Takht-e-Bahi, Swat, Gilgit-Baltistan and other Pakistani areas.

While understanding the need of the promotion of faith tourism for the improvement of Pakistan's image globally I am thankful to the Government of Pakistan who had established a task force on Gandhara Tourism. I am honored to be its Chairman, appointed by the Prime Minister of Pakistan in acknowledgement of my selfless contributions as Patron-in-chief Pakistan Hindu Council, with the status of State Minister.

The Taskforce on Gandhara Tourism has achieved significant milestones within a short span of time in just few months; such as:

- (i) Celebration of Buddha Purnima along with diplomats of Buddhist majority countries at Islamabad Museum.
- (ii) Weekly visits to Gandhara heritage sites, including Buddha's caves, Takht e Bahi, Taxila, Swat, Manikyala Stupa Rawat, Peshawar and Bhamala Stupa, on every Wednesday, Accompanied by various diplomats, ambassadors and media persons.
- (iii) A Round-Table Conference on Gandhara Tourism, attended by 20 prominent Ambassadors, including Thailand, Nepal, Indonesia, Spain, Vietnam and others based in Islamabad, and 70 Pakistani foreign missions virtually thru video link.
- (iv) Most importantly, the International Gandhara Symposium on 11th, 12th, 13th July, 2023 which Was well attended by 31 highly respected and most venerable Monks, speakers, Researchers, diplomats, academia and international personalities from different countries.

During the Gandhara Symposium, a draft of Takshashila Declaration, in connection with the ancient name of Pakistani city Taxila and center of Gandhara, was drafted and shared with the monks and embassies to strengthen bilateral Cooperation on the subject matter.

I believe that with the promotion of Gandhara tourism under PM Task Force, in a short period of time, Pakistan can earn a large amount of foreign exchange and also get rid of foreign debts of time. Moreover, it will help to improve Pakistan's image at national and international levels.

Long live Pakistan!

Mr. Parshotam Ramani

General Secretary
Pakistan Hindu Council

MESSAGE

Dedicated to the welfare of society, my life's mission has been to serve humanity. As the General Secretary of the Pakistan Hindu Council, I am committed to serving the community and fostering awareness about Hinduism and the essence of humanity. I aspire to carry out this noble cause and humbly seek the strength and abilities of the divine to tread this path in life. I take pride in the accomplishments made under the leadership of Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani. The Pakistan Hindu Council, guided by a mission to serve the underprivileged, educate impoverished children, and support needy families financially and medically, has made significant strides, and we aim to extend our reach to even more individuals.

A paramount objective of the Pakistan Hindu Council is to promote interfaith harmony in Pakistan. To achieve this, we organize various social activities such as Iftar and Sehri Programs, Christmas Programs, and Interfaith Harmony Walks. These initiatives are geared towards fostering a deeper understanding of diverse religions, fostering peace, and ensuring prosperity within our society. Through our Rozgar Scheme, we've created employment opportunities for hundreds of youths, while our sewing machine distribution program has empowered many widows to sustain a livelihood for themselves and their families.

Among the essential services provided by the Pakistan Hindu Council are two cremation buses operating in Hyderabad and Karachi, along with 16 ambulances. Additionally, we operate 17 schools in remote areas of Tharparkar, emphasizing the importance of education. Our goal is to provide education to children in deprived areas, and this year, we initiated a female scholarship program, offering scholarships to girls from minority communities across Pakistan. The aim is to empower and educate the women of our society.

This year, I am delighted to announce the launch of the "Jeevan ka Saathi" Application by the Pakistan Hindu Council. This matrimonial platform for Hindus worldwide is designed to connect Hindu youth globally, fostering unity and transcending differences in caste and culture.

The annual Combined Marriages Program, where 100 couples tie the knot, stands as one of the most significant events organized by the Pakistan Hindu Council. This program aims to facilitate dignified marriages for the less fortunate, with all expenses covered by the Council. I appeal to influential individuals and organizations to join hands with us in this noble cause and bring joy to deprived families.

Congratulations to all the couples participating in the Mass Marriage Program 2024 on this auspicious new beginning. May your journey together be filled with love and prosperity.
