Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani

Patron-in-Chief

It is indeed a matter of pride that people have full trust in the Pakistan Hindu Council and I am thankful to our supporters and well-wishers who always come up with new ideas, joint ventures and funds in the personal or professional capacity.

The Vankwani family has initiated a grand welfare project called Prem Nagar at our native town Islamkot, Tharparkar in the loving memory of Dr Prem Kumar, who left us in April 2021. We have purchased 110 acres of land at our own to establish a world class model village as a beacon of hope for promoting social justice, equality, and sustainable development.

Geostrategically, Prem Nagar also serves as a central point that connects Chachro, Nangarparker, Diplo, Mithi and other important places in the Tharparkar region. Although Tharparkar is one of the backward remote areas of Pakistan, in comparison with the education and talent with other parts, students belonging to Tharparkar always perform very well with the highest percentage and score. Unfortunately, due to poverty, education, health facilities and lack of resources, their talent and potential is being wasted.

Because of being my native town, it was my dire wish to work on some welfare project for the development of my people, my city, and my country. Therefore, I laid down the foundation of Prem Nagar, a model village with multi sectoral welfare projects, which will definitely change the fate of Tharparkar with the involvement of donors, investors and philanthropists. Initially, construction work related to SOS Children's Village, Public School, Orphanage, Old-aged home, Thar Nature History Museum, Thar University, and Nursing & Paramedical College have been started whereas others are in the pipeline.

Within a short time period of just three years, the Prem Nagar has emerged successfully as a role model that fosters social inclusion and cohesion by bringing together people from diverse backgrounds and promoting mutual understanding and respect to all. The good news that I would like to share is that the Pakistan Centre for Philanthropy has also recognized its active contributions as a welfare project. By providing training and resources, our initiative is very rapidly enabling communities to become self-sufficient and empowered to take control of their lives.

By providing access to quality education, skills training, and economic opportunities, I believe that the Prem Nagar would play its due role in reducing poverty and to improve the overall standard of living. Further, it enables communities to develop sustainable livelihoods, increasing their economic independence and resilience, as well as uplifting the socio-economic condition by creating jobs, promoting entrepreneurship, and attracting investments.

I am also grateful to the Pakistan Hindu Council for the active support and kind cooperation to make this noble cause a great success since day one. We are committed that every human being will be eligible to get relief regardless of their religious affiliations.

Finally, I would like to assure that my struggle, especially to protect the rights of Non-Muslim citizens and charity work will get more momentum in future till we fulfill the dream of Quaid-e-Azam.
