Important Instructions for Registration (For Unemployed Individuals)

The Pakistan Hindu Council is providing a special platform for unemployed individuals to help them find better employment opportunities. To benefit from this program, it is essential to follow the instructions below.

Disclaimer:

The Pakistan Hindu Council is only responsible for providing a platform that connects unemployed individuals with potential employers. We act solely as a bridge between job seekers and job providers. We do not guarantee job placement, salary, or employment terms. The final decision of hiring rests entirely with the employer.

Applicants are advised to verify the authenticity of job offers independently. The Council will not be held responsible for any agreement, dispute, or arrangement made between the applicant and the employer.
